HYLAN WINS IN NEW YORK BY 147,975; BEATS RECORD

closing hour. Men and women cheered, tooted horns, and blocked the streets, shouting for Hyman.

The Socialist candidate, Hillquit, proclaimed his showing a crushing blow for "militarism," and asserted New York had declared "for democracy and peace."

Ten Socialist Aldermen. Socialists claimed the election of ten aldermen, four in Manhattan. Tammany Hall was a merry spot today. Many Tammany enthusiasts were up all night celebrating, and they were still on the job at day-break.

"Up-State" Elects Lewis. Interest in New York State elections outside the greater city was centered in the victory of Merton E. Lewis, of Rochester, Republican attorney general by appointment, over D. P. Hodson, the Democratic candidate for that office. The race turned out to be a one-sided victory for the Republican nominee, as up-State voters rolled up a decisive majority. Later returns indicate that Lewis has won with a plurality of better than 70,000.

SUFFRAGISTS CARRY NEW YORK STATE BY MORE THAN 80,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The great State of New York awoke today to find nearly 2,000,000 new voters within its borders.

Women suffrage has won in New York, and latest indications are that it carried by more than 80,000 votes, after sixty-nine years of continuous effort since the first woman suffrage convention was held in the United States.

New York is the first of the great Eastern States to grant women the ballot, and having won their fight, the suffragists of the Empire State now will turn their attention toward a Federal amendment to enfranchise women throughout the United States.

Mrs. Norman de Whitehouse, chairman of the New York State women suffrage party said today: "The State women suffrage party has leased its headquarters for another year, and will join with the national suffrage party to fight for a Federal amendment, which will enfranchise all of the women in the United States."

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, chairman of the national suffrage party predicted that every woman in the country will be given the ballot within two more years.

METZEROTT IS AHEAD IN PRINCE GEORGE'S

UPPER MARLBORO, Md., Nov. 7.—The entire Republican ticket appears to be elected in Prince George's county from latest returns.

Nine out of the twenty-three districts and precincts show these results:

State senate—Holmes (Dem.), 1,206; Metzgerott (Rep.), 1,256.
House of delegates—Arnold (Dem.), 1,115; Claggett (Dem.), 1,275; Davis (Rep.), 1,571; Fisher (Rep.), 1,570; Lusby (Dem.), 976; Merrick (Rep.), 1,320; Nichols (Dem.), 1,060; Timanus (Rep.), 1,203.
Sheriff—Beall (Rep.), 1,311; Ogle (Dem.), 1,222.
County commissioner—Duvall (Rep.), 1,282; Manning (Dem.), 1,071; Ryan (Rep.), 1,370; Waters (Dem.), 1,269.

It seems likely that the returns from the other districts, so far unreported, will not change this result nor materially increase the Republican margin.

Woman's Party Chiefs Are Encouraged

Early adoption of a Federal amendment granting suffrage to women was forecast here today by members of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association, and the National Woman's Party upon receipt of news of the victory for suffrage in New York's election.

"Nothing could mean more to us than the victory of the New York women," declared Mrs. Helen H. Gardner, of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association. "The votes of these women will translate themselves into votes of Congressmen and the Federal amendment is practically won."

"This victory by the New York State women greatly encourages us," said Mrs. William Kent, of the National Woman's Party. "We see in it the early adoption of the Federal amendment granting suffrage to the women of America."

LOCAL OPTION WINS IN NEW JERSEY VOTE

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 7.—Local option won at the election in New Jersey yesterday. Enough assemblages pledged to local option were elected to insure its passage by the legislature without difficulty.

Six Republican senators and two Democrats were chosen. With those who hold over, the senate will stand 15 Republicans and 6 Democrats. Not since long before Governor Wilson's time has the Democratic party had such a remarkable representation in both houses of the State legislature.

SYRACUSE ELECTS REPUBLICAN. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Walter R. Stone, Republican, was re-elected mayor.

DRYS STILL LEAD OHIO BY LESS THAN THOUSAND

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7.—All but 416 of Ohio's 5,756 precincts gave the drays a majority of 609, according to unofficial returns at 10 o'clock today. Precincts yet to report are practically all rural, where drays are considered strong.

DRYS LEAD BY BUT 62. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Indications early this afternoon were that the fate of prohibition would not be known until the very last returns were in. With only 277 State precincts missing the drays were leading by 62 votes. These figures were unofficial.

Socialists failed to elect a mayor in Ohio on their anti-war platform. Incomplete returns today from the seven cities where they ran strongest and where they made prohibition claims, showed big increases at some points and losses at others, but in no city was there a showing indicating anything near an even division on the war issue.

ANTI-WAR TICKET IS DEFEATED IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The bipartisan ticket returning the sitting judges of the county bench to office defeated by an estimated plurality of 30,000 votes the Socialist ticket.

A proposal for a bond issue for good roads, involving an expenditure of $1,000,000 carried. Women aided in beating other bond issues, being allowed to vote on the propositions, but not on the judicial ticket.

WILMINGTON REMAINS WET. WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—Wilmington remains a wet subdivision of Delaware as a result of the special license election, the license forces carrying it by a majority of 2,571, but the anti-license forces carried rural New Castle county, which has heretofore been wet, by a majority estimated at 700.

LOUISVILLE REPUBLICAN. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Early returns give Smith, Republican, a lead of 441 over Cronan, Democrat, for mayor. Dry majorities in most counties are indicated. (Other Election News on Page 17.)

REPUBLICAN WIN HELPS BALTIMORE ANNEXATION PLAN

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—The outstanding feature of the election in Maryland yesterday was the victory of the Republicans in gaining control of the next house of delegates. Inasmuch as the G. O. P. delegates are pledged to support the plan for annexation of Baltimore county by Baltimore city the chances are bright for this city to rank high in the population race with Cleveland and Detroit.

Race Track Question, Too. With a Republican house and a Democratic senate at Annapolis, many politicians are wondering what the outcome will be when the foes of race tracks renew their fight before the legislature.

The G. O. P. also elected its candidate, Atwood, for the State comptroller over McMullin, who was swept into office two years ago with Governor Harrington.

Civic Bonds Go Down. In this city the proposition for a $3,000,000 bond issue for civic improvements was voted down by a big majority, while the plan to create a charter commission was carried over, overwhelmingly.

Although Baltimore is normally Democratic the Democrats fought among themselves, Frank "The Kelly" lining up with the State organization while John J. "Sonny" Mahon cast his lot with the city organization headed by Mayor Preston.

HOW MONTGOMERY VOTED. ROCKVILLE, Md., Nov. 7.—It seems certain that J. Dawson Williams will be the winner for the State senate, defeating his Republican opponent, Willis L. Moore, by about 1,000 votes.

Joseph W. Jones, Democrat, seems surely elected for the house of delegates. William H. Fawcett, also a Democrat, likewise seems to be certain of going to Annapolis. The other two places are in doubt, and there likely will be a close vote.

In the First district it seems certain that Samuel Riggs will carry the county commission for the Democrats. In the Second district it is likely that John R. Lewis, Democrat, will be elected. There is no opposition to Odorion W. Roby, Democrat, in the Fifth district. William L. Aud seems to be the successful candidate for sheriff and W. Ernest Offutt, also a Democrat, likely will be the winner for county surveyor.

REPUBLICAN SWEEP IN MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Gov. Samuel W. McCall and the entire Republican State ticket made a clean sweep in yesterday's election. The governor was re-elected for a third term by a plurality of 91,023 over Frederick W. Mansfield, his Democratic opponent.

The anti-aid amendment to the constitution, which prohibits the use of State money for other than State-controlled institutions, was adopted by a majority of 78,000. Lieut. Gov. Calvin Coolidge, Republican, defeated Matthew Hale, who had the support of the Democratic, Progressive, and Prohibition forces, by 100,545 plurality.

The only point scored by Democracy in the election was the success of William E. Russell in a senatorial district in Cambridge. Mr. Russell is a son of the late William E. Russell, formerly governor, and a Democratic idol.

Wilfred W. Lufkin, of Beverly, Republican, was elected to Congress in the Sixth district over George A. Scho-

"Red Heads" At Food Show Will Give Way To 200-Lb. Women Tonight

Women who can tip the scales to 200 or better will be admitted free to the National Food Show and Industrial Exposition of the Retail Grocers' Association, Convention Hall, tonight.

About 200 Titian-haired fair ones were admitted to the show free last night, "red-headed woman's night." The attendance was 12,000.

Held, Democrat, by a plurality of 11,038. The election was to fill the vacancy caused by Augustus P. Gardner going to war. Mr. Lufkin was Mr. Gardner's secretary.

Amendments, one calling for absentee voting and the other that municipalities can add necessities of life, were adopted by large votes.

PENROSE PARTY LOSES IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 7.—On the face of unofficial returns today, exclusive of the soldier vote, the entire regular Republican ticket was elected by a slim majority. The town meeting party, or fusion ticket, which was formed immediately following the primary as a result of the riots in the "bloody" Fifth ward, made a spirited contest for every office. The party had the backing of Senator Penrose and State Senator James F. McNichols.

DEMOCRATIC AFTER 42 YEARS.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 7.—For the first time in forty-two years this city went Democratic in its municipal election. Moles Versette, a provision dealer, defeating the present mayor, Harry W. Spaulding, Republican, for re-election by a plurality of 141 votes. The Democrats elected eight of the thirteen aldermen and over one of the poor. The election is for two years.
